

Briefly about the history of the agency

In 1992, Romana Jelínková founded allphoto, a private stock images agency, which based on international agreements has successfully represented dozens of foreign agencies and domestic photographers, especially on the Czech and Slovak markets. In 2017, the trademark and all activities of this private company were transferred to allphoto s.r.o. The agency continues to develop and expand services and offerings to reflect current customer requirements.
